

Village of Glendale

Proclamation

Proclamation honoring Edy the Oberle and recognizing all her many contributions

WHEREAS, From time to time it is befitting to honor and recognize those among us that contribute much of their time, resources and talents to God's Temple, and

WHEREAS, Edythe Oberle first came to Christ Episcopal Church of Glendale in 1972 with her husband Charles after having served the now closed Bond Hill Church, and

WHEREAS, Edythe became President of the Episcopal Church Women and served in that capacity for seven full years, and

WHEREAS, She supervised the quilting of many fine and cherished quilts and performed many alterations, including the Rector's, and

WHEREAS, She became a Vestry representative and, upon the loss of her husband, continued to contribute much to the Church; including memorials, becoming director of the hand bells, supporting altar linens, Junior Choir and other necessary organizations among our Church.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor of the Village of Glendale, Ohio, and a life long member of the Christ Episcopal Church of Glendale;

SECTION I: That this resolution of honor, signed by the Mayor of the Village of Glendale, expresses the appreciation of the many generous and talented contributions provided by Edythe Oberle.

SECTION II: That this proclamation of appreciation be transmitted to Edythe Oberle and her loving family as a testament to Glendale's appreciation

Alexander J. Brockmeier, Mayor
